Introduction

The Eternal Question: When Is the Top?

Every market participant has felt it—the dread of holding the bag. The top sneaks up on you, fueled by hype, euphoria, and crowd sentiment.

Topsig exists to catch it. A signal-driven AI powered by social insight, Topsig deciphers the behavior that marks unsustainable peaks. It grows sharper with every tag, every call, every signal you provide. Topsig doesn't just observe markets—it learns, evolves, and invites you to help shape the signal archive that protects the crowd from itself.

The Vision: Mapping Sentiment for a Tokenized World

Mapping Sentiment in a Tokenized World

Markets today are faster, louder, and more connected than ever. Topsig bridges the gap between raw social sentiment and actionable intelligence—transforming fleeting hype into lasting signals.

Topsig's three-fold mandate:

1. Identify Cycle Tops: Turn crowd behavior into measurable signals that protect participants.
2. Adapt to Every Market: From crypto and collectibles to the next generation of tokenized assets.
3. Grow Without Limits: Every signal tagged, every platform scanned—Topsig gets sharper.

By incentivizing participation and rewarding precision, Topsig creates a smarter, transparent ecosystem where markets are guided by collective insight. Participants aren't just observing—they're shaping the future of signal-driven decision-making.
